

BRANDENBURG.

The rain and mud kept a crowd from going to the old mill Saturday night.

Mrs. J. H. Hines, Brother Davall's grandmother, and Miss Collins are his guests.

Miss Edith Ostrander left Saturday night to visit her aunt, Mrs. Allen, Paradise Bottom.

Miss Addie G. Dittie will attend the marriage of her brother, John T., at Decatur, Illinois on the 28th.

A movement is on foot to buy a Baptist parsonage. It is just the thing. The members will have outside help. Push it!

I shall anxiously await Mrs. Piggott's article pertaining to Sunday School subjects. She is an entertaining writer at all times.

Miss Mary Snider, who has been at New Haven for many years, has returned to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. George Dowden.

So far Sunday was red letter day for Doe Run Springs, over a hundred boarders down from Louisville, New Albany, and other points.

Mrs. Stuart Peckenpaugh and Miss Mattie McGhee, of Louisville, are spending a week or two with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. June McGhee.

Miss Mayden Pusey entertained Dr. Abel, Mr. Hibbitt and Prof. Kerrick, of Louisville, Misses McAlpine and Richardson at Doe Run Springs as a house party.

Miss Robinson, (a thousand pardons for getting her name wrong last week) has returned to Gendene after a visit to the Misses Lewis. Indisposition shortened her stay, which we all regret.

Mr. A. C. Burton went to Vine Grove Saturday to meet the alumni of the Vine Grove school. The reunion exercises were largely attended and the usual banquet I suppose, followed the literary exercises.

Miss Ruth McAlpine, of Kentucky, will remain sometime yet in Kentucky visiting relatives and friends. She is a charming girl and has made many friends in Kentucky. She has been shown much social attention here and in Louisville.

Brother Duvall preached just the kind of sermon last Sunday morning to encourage Christians and to start others to thinking. "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and all other things shall be added unto you." A sweet spirited sermon! How it helps!

The Ladies Aid has had the spire on the Methodist church painted adding much to the appearance of the building. We, the aid, expect the good male members to help us out, so put your hands down in your pocket and get ready for a call.

There's a large crowd at the old mill on Doe Run. Every one is delighted with Mr. and Mrs. Childs as host and hostess. The table is first class in every particular. I have spent several pleasant evenings out there and I never saw the pretty spot any prettier or more picturesque.

The Rev. Geo. Niehaus, rector of St. Martin's, Flaherty, has the highest average so far, as a paint buyer this season—550 lbs of white lead, 53 gallons of linseed oil not to speak of varnish, colors &c. St. Martin's beautiful edifice is to receive a new coat. The corner drug store captured the bill.

The friends and relatives here of Mrs. Ware, who was a Miss Fairleigh, niece of Judge C. Fairleigh, regret exceedingly the trouble in which her husband is involved in the shooting of Dr. Piner and they all sincerely hope she may be exonerated. Jealousy is a fearful failing and makes demons of people.

Mrs. Ella Gregory, nee Ella Dowden, received the medal offered by Mr. Burton to the pupil of Brandenburg Normal receiving the highest average in the May and June examination. Mrs. Gregory has received first assistant's place in the Cloverport school. We all congratulate this ambitious, bright young woman.

Mrs. Mollie D. Carrico, of Mayfield, Ky., sister of Mrs. Tom Hambleton, and Miss Barbara Shacklett, of this place, was married at Paducah last Thursday to Mr. Hatcher of St. Louis. He is a fine business man and a widower with two grown children. They will live in St. Louis. Mrs. Hatcher is a very handsome, stylish woman and numbers many friends here who wish her great happiness in her new life.

McKinley and Roosevelt, pretty strong ticket for the Democrats to fight. Roosevelt only smiled during the storm of applause when he looked at his wife who waved her hands and smiled in return. Well she should certainly see the photographer who is responsible for her picture in Thursday's Courier, or if it is a true prototype, I wonder the "Rough Rider" glanced and smiled, but then husbands, even "puffed up ones," look at their partners through a tinted lens.

Our present dependence upon foreign shipping for nine-tenths of our foreign carrying is a great loss to the industry of this country. It is also a serious danger to our trade, for its sudden withdrawal in the event of European war would seriously cripple our expanding foreign commerce. The national defense and naval efficiency of this country, moreover, supply a compelling reason for legislation, which will enable us to recover our former place among the trade-carrying fleets of the world.

The nation owes a debt of profound gratitude to the soldiers and sailors who have fought its battles, and it is the government's duty to provide for the survivors and for the widows and orphans of those who have fallen in the country's wars. The pension laws, founded in this just sentiment, should be liberal, and should be liberally administered, and preference should be given wherever practicable with the respect to employment in the public service to soldiers and sailors or to their widows and orphans.

FOR CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

We commend the policy of the Republican party in maintaining the efficiency of the civil service. The administration has acted wisely in its efforts to secure for public service in Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippine Islands only those whose fitness has been determined by training and experience. We believe that employment in the public service in these Territories should be confined as far as practicable to their inhabitants.

It was the plain purpose of the fifteenth amendment to the constitution to prevent discrimination on account of race or color in regulating the elective franchise. Devices of State governments, whether by statutory or constitutional enactment, to avoid the purpose of the amendment, are revolutionary and should be condemned.

Public movements looking to a permanent improvement of roads and highways of the country meet with our cordial approval, we recommend this subject to the earnest consideration of the people of the Legislatures of the several States.

We favor the extension of the rural free delivery service wherever its extension may be justified.

In further pursuance of the constant policy of the Republican party to provide free homes on the public domain, we recommend adequate national legislation to reclaim the arid lands of the United States, reserving control of the distribution of water for irrigation to the respective States and Territories.

We favor home rule for the early admission to statehood of the Territories of New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma.

The Dingley act amended to provide sufficient revenue for the conduct of the war has so well performed its work that it has been possible to reduce the war debt in the sum of $40,000,000. So ample are the government revenues and so great is the public confidence in the integrity of its obligations that its newly funded 2 per cent. bonds sell at a premium. The country is now justified in expecting, and will be the policy of the Republican party to bring about, a reduction of the war taxes.

We favor the construction, ownership, control and protection of an isthmian canal by the government of the United States. New markets are necessary for the increasing surplus of our farm products. Every effort should be made to open and obtain new markets, especially in the Orient, and the administration is warmly to be commended for its successful effort to commit all trading and colonizing nations to the policy of the open door in China. In the interest of our expanding commerce, we recommend that Congress create a Department of Commerce and Industries in the charge of a Secretary with a State debt. United States Consular system should be reorganized under the supervision of this new department and tenure as will render it still more serviceable to the nation's increasing trade.

The American government must protect the person and property of every citizen wherever they are wrongfully violated or placed in peril.

We congratulate the women of America upon their splendid record of public service in the volunteer aid association, as nurses in camp and hospital during the recent campaign of our armies in the Eastern and Western Indies, and we appreciate their faithful co-operation in all works of education and industry.

FOREIGN POLICY OUTLINED.

President McKinley has conducted the foreign affairs of the United States with distinguished credit to the American people. In releasing us from the vexatious conditions of European alliance for the government of Samoa, his course is especially to be commended. By securing to our undivided control the most important island of the Samoan group and the best harbor in the Southern Pacific, every American interest has been safeguarded. We approve the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to the United States.

We commend the part taken by our government in the peace conference at the Hague. We assert our steadfast adherence to the policy announced in the Monroe doctrine. The provisions of the Hague convention were wisely regarded when President McKinley tendered his friendly offices in the interest of peace between Great Britain and the South African republic. While the American government must continue the policy prescribed by Washington, affirmed by every succeeding President, and imposed upon us by The Hague treaty, of non-intervention in European controversies, the American people earnestly hope that a way may soon be found, honorable alike to both contending parties, to terminate the strife between them.

In accepting, by the treaty of Paris, the just responsibility of our victories in the Spanish war, the President and the Senate won the undoubted approval of the American people. No other course was possible than to destroy Spain's sovereignty throughout the West Indies and in the Philippine Islands. That course created our responsibility before the world, and with the unorganized population, whom our intervention had freed from Spain, to provide for the maintenance of law and order, and for the establishment of good government and for the performance of international obligations. Our authority and wherever sovereign rights were extended, it became the high duty of the government its authority to put down armed insurrection and to confer the blessings of liberty and civilization upon all the rescued peoples. The largest measure of self-government consistent with their welfare and our duties, shall be secured to them by law. To Cuba independence and self-government were assured in the same voice by which war was declared, and to the letter this pledge shall be performed. The Republican party upon its history and upon this declaration of its principles confidently invokes the considerate and approving judgment of the American people.

Would Not Suffer so Again For Fifty Times Its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drugstore and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Liveryman, Burgettsburg, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by A. R. Fisher, Cloverport, B. A. Shellman Stephensport.

HOOD VS HOOD.

C. I. Hood & Co. Victorious in Important Cases—Injunction Against Dr. J. C. Hood.

Important suits have just been decided in the U. S. Circuit Courts involving the right to the word Hood or Hood's. Messrs. C. I. Hood & Co., of Lowell, Mass., proprietors of Hood's Sarsaparilla, began suit for infringement against Dr. J. C. Hood of Louisville, Ky., who was putting up what he called "Dr. Hood's Sarsaparilla." After a hearing in the U. S. Circuit Court at Louisville, Judge Evans, on April 12th, granted a temporary injunction in favor of C. I. Hood & Co., and restrained J. C. Hood from using the word Hood in any way or form on any preparation of sarsaparilla.

Messrs. C. I. Hood & Co. also began suit against a retail druggist in Indianapolis, Louis H. Renkert, who was selling Dr. J. C. Hood's Sarsaparilla. Dr. J. C. Hood employed counsel and made a defence, but Judge Baker of the U. S. Circuit Court granted an injunction which on April 23 became perpetual.

These two decrees establish the exclusive right of C. I. Hood & Co. to the word "Hood's" and decide in effect that no other person can put up a Hood's Sarsaparilla even if his name is Hood, nor can any retail druggist offer for sale any sarsaparilla bearing the name Hood or Hood's other than that prepared by C. I. Hood & Co.

These decisions will be gratifying to every fair minded person. No manufacturer should object to fair competition, but when an attempt is made to steal or infringe upon a business which has been established by great skill, labor and expenditure, justice cannot be dealt out too quickly. Nor should "substitution" be allowed, when a standard article is called. Therefore, when you go to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla you should be sure to get "only Hood's."

KENTUCKY DEMOCRATIC SPECIAL TO KANSAS CITY

VIA

HENDERSON ROUTE.

LOUISVILLE, KY., June 19; 1900.

To the Delegates, Alternates and Democrats of Kentucky:

Your attention is directed to the circular just issued, bearing the indorsement of some of the leading Democrats of the State, wherein the "Henderson Route" (Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis R'y) and the Missouri Pacific R'y, are adopted and recommended to the Democracy of Kentucky as the best route possible to Kansas City, where the Democratic National Convention will convene July 4th. The "Henderson Route" is distinctively a Kentucky road, independent in its connection with other lines, and in its appeal to the Democracy of Kentucky can offer nothing stronger as an inducement for your patronage than to say it is a State road and home-institution, sharing alike with every inhabitant of the State the fortunes and misfortunes that come to our good and grand old Commonwealth. Our interests are mutual, our aims and desires are analogous, and the earnings of both find their way to the same coffer. Why shouldn't we appeal to you and in return, receive, as we have, your indorsement, and now ask your hearty co-operation?

In order to further arrange for your comfort and pleasure, we have agreed to place on sale berths in special Pullman Sleepers for your convenience, and we urge you to order the same at once. They can be occupied at Louisville, Henderson or intermediate points, the rate being $3.00 through to Kansas City, or $2.00 from St. Louis to Kansas City. Two persons can occupy one berth. It is not compulsory to take a Pullman Sleeper; indeed, we have anticipated the wishes and comfort of all, and the "Special" as made up will also contain specially equipped high-back standard coaches, and the matter is left entirely optional with you.

The Democratic Special will be decorated from engine to sleeper and a specially equipped baggage car, stocked with many of the good things for which Kentucky is famous, will be attached to the train. May we again solicit your co-operation in making this the largest and most distinctively distinguished "Kentucky Special," bearing "Kentucky Democrats," that has ever left the State and our motto—Kentuckians for Kentucky.

Courteous and affable representatives will accompany the "SPECIAL" from Louisville to Kansas City. It will be no trouble to answer questions, and any one of the undersigned will give prompt answers to all inquiries.

Remember the "Democratic Special" leaves Louisville Monday, July 2nd, 1 p. m., from Seventh and River Union Depot, and the rate from Louisville to Kansas City and return is $15.50, or one single fare from any point in the State for the round trip—inquire of the nearest ticket agent for particulars. See that your ticket reads via the "Henderson Route."
